Extensions are rows of female headers for positive headers to be connected. This allows lights to be added / removed more easily.